The City of South St. Paul conducts criminal history background checks on all temporary and seasonal employees. All employment offers are conditioned upon passing a criminal background check. Convictions are not an automatic bar to employment. Each case is considered on its individual merits and the type of work sought. However, making false statements or withholding information will cause you to be barred from employment, or removed from employment.

I hereby certify that all answers to the above questions are true and I agree and understand any false statements contained in this application may cause rejection of this application or termination of employment. I authorize that a transcript may be requested where necessary to verify any education record. In accordance with Minnesota Data Practices Act (M.S. 15.165) I have been informed of and understand my rights as a subject of data.

I understand that if I am employed by the City, my position is temporary or seasonal in nature and may be discontinued at the discretion of the employer.

NOTICE TO APPLICANT

The Minnesota Government Data Practices Act (Minnesota Statutes 13.01-13.88) has two sections that affect applicants seeking employment with the City.

First, under “Rights of Subjects of Data”, (MN 13.04) when an applicant is asked to provide personal data, the City must advise you of:

- The purpose and intended use of the data;
- Whether you may refuse or are legally required to supply the requested data;
- Any known consequence arising from your supplying or refusing to supply the data; and
- The identity of other persons or organizations authorized by State or Federal Law to receive the data you provide.

Second, under “Personnel Data”, (MN Statute 13.43) the following data as an applicant for employment by a public agency is automatically public:

- Your veteran’s status;
- Your job history;
- Your education and training;
- Your relevant test scores;
- Your rank on our eligibility list; and
- Work availability

As an applicant, your name is considered private until you are certified as eligible for appointment to a position or are considered by the appointing authority to be a finalist for a position in public employment.

If you are hired, the following additional data about you will be public:

- You name;
- Your city and county of residence;
- Your actual gross salary, salary range and actual gross pension;
- The value and nature of employer paid benefits, including the basis for and the amount of any added remuneration to your salary;
- Your job title and job description;
- The dates of your first and last employment with us;
- The status of any written complaints or charges against you while you work for the City of South St. Paul, and whether or not they resulted in disciplinary action;
- Your work location and work telephone number;
- Your education and training background;
- Honors and awards you have received;
- Time sheets or other comparable data that are only used to account for your work time for payroll purposes; and
- Your previous work experience.

All data concerning you, which is placed in your personnel file and which is not listed above is private data. This private data will be available to you and to those members of City staff needing it to process City records. In addition, the following persons or organizations are authorized by State and Federal Law to receive this data if they so request:

- The Bureau of Census
- Federal, State and County Auditors
- The State Department of Public Welfare
- The Department of Human Rights
- Federal Officials investigating compliance of Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunities
- Labor Organizations and the Bureau of Mediation Services
- Data may also be made available through court order

The data you provide is needed to identify you and to assist in determining your suitability for the position for which you are applying.
